

Program Objectives

Participant will identify patterns of abuse.

Participant will own responsibility for behavior.

Participants will have a clear understanding of family violence, the effects on the victim and children in the home, and the perpetrator.

Participants will have an understanding of healthy intimate relationships and providing the male model to children in the relationship.

Participants will gain skills in problem resolution, management of emotions and self control.

Topics Include:

Anger Management
Problem Resolution
Healthy Relationships
Giving and Receiving Respect
Profile of a Batterer
Stopping Violent Behavior
Making and Keeping Goals
Understanding Who I Am
Choices and Their Consequences
Substance Abuse and Violence
Controlling Self vs. Controlling Others
My Role as a Father

Hope House
109 W. 3rd
Sweetwater, Texas
(325) 235-1910

HOPE HOUSE

109 W. 3rd Street
Sweetwater, TX
(325) 235-1910

Male Batterers Intervention

Male Batterers Intervention

A thirty-six (36) session program designed to address the pathology of male battering and provide treatment to break the cycle of abuse

Description: This program deals with the current rise in family violence and the addictive process of male batterers.

Goal: To understand the pathology of male battering and provide treatment to break the cycle of abuse.

Thirty-six (36) sessions are required to receive a Certification of Completion.

Program Plan, Schedule and Cost

Group will meet one session per week.

The sessions are designed with rotating topics.

Group participants may be added at any time.

THIRTY-SIX SESSIONS ARE REQUIRED

Group meets every MONDAY at 6:30 p.m.

Cost:
$20 per Session

Location:
Hope House
109 W. 3rd St.
Sweetwater, TX
(325) 235-1910

About the Program

A cognitive/behavioral program designed to help the participants understand the cycle of violence passed from generation to generation. To take responsibility for their behavior and learn skills to break the cycle.

About the Presenter

Cory Hall is a Certified Anger Resolution Therapist with experience in the consequence of family violence. He is dedicated to the cause of helping men of all ages find a productive role in their families and society.